

Photo Fringe

Information for Exhibitors 2026

EASY READ

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Exhibitor Contributions
Exhibition type	Contribution towards the festival
Solo exhibition (at a venue and online)	£125
Group exhibition (at a venue and online)	£150
Solo exhibition (online only)	£60
Group exhibition (online only)	£100
Event listing	FREE

What do these words mean?
Solo exhibition	One artist showing their work
Group exhibition	More than one artist showing work together
Venue and online	Your work is shown in a venue and on the website

PROMOTION

Photo Fringe promotes the festival as a whole.

We will:

- Share festival information online
- Promote exhibitions through social media
- Create festival trails

We encourage exhibitors to promote their own exhibitions too.

We can offer advice, but exhibitors are responsible for contacting the press and promoting their own shows.

We provide free design assets to help with promotion.

OPPORTUNITIES

There will be open calls for:

1. Collective Exhibitions

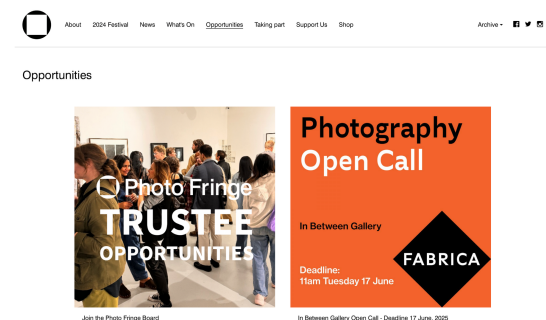

Selected photographic collectives will show work at: Phoenix Art Space, Brighton

1. Festival Hub Exhibitions

Selected artists and groups will show work at: Marine Workshops, Newhaven

Information about these opportunities will be shared on:

- The Photo Fringe website
- Instagram

EVENTS

You can organise events alongside your exhibition.

Examples include:

- Meet the artist sessions
- Workshops
- Talks
- Panel discussions

You can add your event to the Photo

	Fringe website for free.
Bursaries	We know that money can be a barrier. A small number of bursaries are available. You can apply if: ● You would like to take part ● You cannot afford the contribution To apply: Email: info@photofringe.org Include: ● Information about your work ● A short explanation of how Photo Fringe would help your practice All applications are treated confidentially.
Pay It Forward	If you are able to contribute more, you can donate towards a bursary for another artist. This helps make the festival more accessible.
Danny Wilson Memorial Awards	All exhibitors are automatically entered. You do not need to apply separately. Prizes include: ● Financial support ● Mentoring ● Artist talks ● Professional development opportunities
Need Help?	General questions: info@photofringe.org Support with your exhibition plans: ricardo@photofringe.org We look forward to welcoming you to Photo Fringe 2026.